One of the things I like best about school is my art class. We have a great teacher named Mrs. Hilbert. She is a wonderful artist. I love to watch her draw and paint. She taught us how to mix paint to make just the right colors for our paintings. She plays good music while we draw and paint. We draw and paint almost everyday in class. Some days we look at pictures of other artists. It is interesting to do this. It helps me to think of things that I want to paint or draw. We have an art exhibit in May this year. Our work will be in one of the banks in our town. We are inviting people from the community to our exhibit. Our parents are invited to go with us. I have three paintings I am working on now. I hope one of them will be chosen to be in the exhibit. I like having a goal to work toward.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS:

- What is one of the favorite classes of this student?
 - math
 - reading
 - art
 - music
- The author describes Mrs. Hilbert as a _____.
 - nice lady
 - wonderful artist
 - sweet person
 - beautiful person
- What did Mrs. Hilbert teach the class to do?
 - bake chocolate cake
 - write great stories
 - mix paint
 - do long division
- Why does it help this student to see the works of other artists?
 - to learn to draw
 - mix paint
 - to think about what she wants to paint
 - none of these
- Where will the art exhibit be?
 - at the library
 - at one of the banks
 - at the school
 - at one of the churches
- What does this student hope will happen with her paintings?
 - one of them will be sold
 - one of them will be chosen for the exhibit
 - one of them will be of her younger sister
 - one of them will be lost

Jerald loved third grade. He had the best time each day in Mrs. Harold's room. First, they did reading each morning. Jerald loved that class. They read great stories out of their reading books. Some of them were plays and they all took turns acting out the story. They could work in their workbooks. That was fun, too. But, there was one big problem in third grade. They had to MULTIPLY in math!

Jerald did not want to spend time each day studying the multiplication facts. They said the multiplication facts in class. His parents called out multiplication facts at home. This was NO fun for Jerald. He liked to add and subtract. He just hated learning the multiplication facts. Then, one morning Mrs. Harold came into the classroom. She was holding a tape recorder, microphone, and a headset. She told Jerald he was in charge of the lesson that day. Everyone was going to be recording the multiplication facts. Jerald loved this! It was just like being a star holding that microphone. He held it out so everyone could be heard. Mrs. Harold told Jerald to make sure he told the class to go home and study because they would record the lesson again the next day. Jerald went home and learned each and every fact. He wanted to make sure he could answer each one the next day. Multiplication was great Fun!
